C	Confirmed	The Athlete is not required to undergo further Athlete Evaluation, except where required under these Classification Rules due to a Protest, Medical Review, or changes to the Sport Class criteria.
E	Expired	Classification is no longer valid. Assigned if the athlete does not complete an Evaluation Session or compete in an officially sanctioned IPCH competition within 6 years. Also assigned when R-NAO or a R-FRD remain inactive for 2 years after their review period. Athletes with E cannot compete until they complete a new Evaluation Session and receive a new Sport Class and Sport Class Status.
R -NAO	Review at the Next Available Opportunity	Valid for a maximum of 2 years. If no review is completed within this period, the status automatically becomes Expired (E).
R-FRD	Review with a Fixed Review Date	After the Fixed Review Date has passed, the status remains valid for a maximum of 2 additional years. If no review is completed during that period, the status automatically becomes Expired (E).
NE - UHC	Not Eligible – Underlying Health Condition	Assigned when the Athlete is determined not to have (or not to have had) at least one medically and/or clinically diagnosed Underlying Health Condition, following the UHC assessment process. If the first UHC Assessor is not satisfied, IPCH appoints a second independent UHC Assessor before a final designation is made. An Athlete designated NE-UHC is not eligible to compete in IPCH sanctioned or recognized competitions. The designation is not subject to Review or Protest, but may be Appealed in accordance with the IPCH Classification Rules.
NE - EI	Not Eligible – Eligible Impairment	The Athlete does not have an Eligible Impairment as defined by the IPCH Classification Rules This decision may be appealed only if there was a procedural error that could reasonably have affected the outcome
NE - MIC	Not Eligible – Minimum Impairment Criteria	The Athlete has an Eligible Impairment but does not meet the Minimum Impairment Criteria (MIC) required to compete in IPCH. This decision may be appealed only if there was a procedural error that could reasonably have affected the outcome
